Important Ordering Details

- PLEASE PLACE ORDERS WITH FIELDS. From now on ALL orders must go to Fields, (but feel free to contact me with questions and comments). If you don't mind using the internet it would be very helpful for us if you place your orders--at least your initial one--online at www.FieldsBooks.com. This way we can get your address and payment details securely and inexpensively into a database. You can also order through more traditional channels. Orders accepted 24 hours a day seven days a week by phone, fax, email and mail. Please supply book number and title along with your shipping and payment information. If you are sending a check please call ahead if you can and get the total, if not you will be refunded for sold items. Make checks payable to Fields Book Store and include $4.00 for the first book and $1.00 each additional. All credit card and international orders will be charged for exact postage costs. California orders charged 8.5%. Books sent media mail/surface rate and insured unless otherwise requested.
- RETURNS: As always any purchase is returnable for any or no reason. Please pack well and mail back within a reasonable period of time. Please call ahead if returning anything over $200.00
- PAYMENT: All orders must be prepaid before we can ship them--libraries and institutions excepted. Please supply Fields with your payment and shipping details. Visa, MC, and Discover accepted. If you prefer to pay with check then please make the check out to Fields Book Store. If there is a problem one of us will contact you. If you need credit terms on a large order I am sure we can work something out, call Todd Pratum.
- EMAIL: If you would like to receive email lists of new arrivals, please send Fields your email address. All email orders and messages sent to Fields will be confirmed, usually within a day if not sooner. That means if you don't get a reply from them then we did not get your message.
- FOREIGN CUSTOMERS: We have regular customers all over the world from China to Iceland to South Africa and we are well versed in shipping, customs, and insurance options. We pack your books very carefully and offer the cheapest postage rates possible. Your books will be sent parcel post unless otherwise advised. All orders insured.
- ABBREVIATIONS: dj = dust jacket, fabrikoid = coated cloth binding, frontis = plate facing the title page, nd = no date, op = out of print, vg = very good condition, vf = very fine condition, wraps = plain paper covers. 8vo = octavo (average book size), quarto = art book size. Dates in parentheses are when that edition was first published. Square brackets [] denote information not contained in the book.
- BOOKS BOUGHT: Please let me know if you have individual volumes or quantities to sell or trade. I am always buying and I buy from my customers regularly. Arrangements are generally simple and satisfying for all. Will travel. Smaller collections and accumulations can be mailed or trucked to me at low rates. I buy everything from paperbacks to rare books. Ship books to Fields Book Store with my name on the box, I'll reply at once.

I've tried in this catalog to offer some of the best books selected from my stock. Most have been bought in the last two years and cataloged here for the first time. There is a little from each of my specialties, in editions ranging from low-priced bargain paperbacks to vellum rarities. If you don't see what you are looking for please ask, I've got about 20,000 books in stock.

It's been sometime since I scrutinized my mailing list and there are many people who are getting this catalog who have not ordered in years. The only way to stay on the mailing list now is to buy something regularly, so if you want to continue to get my catalogs please make a purchase.

Recently I bought some nice collections and libraries, including books from the library of Bernard M. Rosenthal, famed manuscript dealer and descendent of the Rosenthal book family, and even though the economy is crazy I continue to buy, so if you have books to sell let me know.

Please also note that since I printed a small number of copies of catalog 86, a lot of people didn't get it and thus there are many fine books unsold still, you can download a PDF at www.Fieldsbooks.com. You can also view an online edition there that omits the sold books.

Speaking of the internet, it's the 21st century and a lot of people I know shop for books online. Therefore I have, for the last few catalogs, checked my prices against the most complete online data bases available. While it's difficult to price my books at the very lowest price, they are never the highest. I offer books in very good condition carefully described with a complete guarantee, quick shipping (usually mailed within a day or two), the lowest traceable postage rates, and access by phone during business hours. Not to mention the free friendly service.

I feel so grateful to continue for 27 years in the business that I love, and I'd like to thank all my customers for their orders, which have sustained, and often inspired me all these years.

11083. [Abel-Remusat, M.Jean Pierre]. [L'INVARIABLE MILIEU, OUVRAGE MORAL DE TSEU-SSE, EN CHINOIS ET EN MANDCHOU, AVEC UNE VERSION LITTERALE LATINE, UNE TRADUCTION FRANCOISE, ET DES NOTES]. [Paris, De L'Imprimerie Royale 1817], quarto, old binder's cloth neatly rebaked, leather label gilt, minor foxing but very good. This is the section on the manuscript sources of Confucius, p.269-426. Handsomely printed with large sections of text in Chinese, a few very neat red ink marginal notes in Chinese, others--just as neat--in French. From the Daoist library of Rudy Langer with his pencil notes on the rear paste-down. Laid in is a photocopy of the title page and preface to the full work. $300.00

11136. Aldred, Cyril. THE EGYPTIANS. London: T & H 1984, revised edition, sewn paperback, well illustrated, vg-f. $12.00

11022. Allegro, John M. THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS AND THE CHRISTIAN MYTH. Buffalo: Prometheus Books, 1984, cloth & dj (dj chipped) 252pp, a few plates. One of the most interesting modern writers to skate on the wild fringes of ancient Christianity. $16.00

2622. Anonymous. THE BOOK OF FORBIDDEN KNOWLEDGE. Black Magic, Superstitions, Charms, Divination, Signs, Omens, Etc. Detroit: Johnson Smith & Company, nd, stapled wraps, 29pp, vg. This is the kind of lowbrow, "black magic" book that was commonly sold in voodoo shops and old-style occult book stores in the first half of the 20th Century. Some are now scarce and surprisingly still in demand. They paint a good picture of what magic was to the unscholarly masses of America then. $10.00

11101. Anonymous. MEDITATIONS ON THE TAROT. A Journey into Christian Hermeticism. Amity: Amity House 1985, cloth & dj, 658pp, frontis (reproducing the image on the jacket), somewhat unsightly remains of a bookplate on front fly else a fine copy of the rare first edition. This is the original English language edition, which was published in both paper and cloth formats, and since republished with changes and a new introduction. $500.00
3920. Anonymous. LA PIERRE AQUEUSE DE SAGESSE OU L'AQUARIUM DES SAGES. Traduction C. Froidebise. Paris: La Table d'Emeraude 1989, small 8vo, sewn color wraps, 102pp, illustrations in the text, vf. The authorship is still in dispute. Since the unfortunate demise of La Table D'Emeraude--Europe's best occult book shop and publisher--their books have become rare. $100.00
10858. Anonymous. SOME MORE PHILOSOPHY OF THE HERMETICS. Issued by Authority of the.... Los Angeles: Baumgardt 1898, gilt cloth, 231pp, vg-f. Probably by D. P. Hatch, it follows 'Some Philosophy of the Hermetics', and is a personal narrative by a self-named initiate. $85.00
10851. Apuleius. THE WORKS OF APULEIUS. Comprising the Metamorphoses..The God of Socrates, The Florida and his Defense, or a Discourse on Magic. London: Bell 1902, short 8vo, 533pp, frontis, translator unknown. A later reprint but text still clear, nice copy. $60.00

Oxford: Clarendon Press 1978, quarto, sewn paperback, 332pp, lavishly illustrated, vg condition. Bernard M. Rosenthal's booklabel. A favorite of mine, it conjures up so much that is noble. $36.00

7600. Basil Valentine. BASIL VALENTINE, HIS TRIUMPHANT CHARIOT OF ANTIMONY. Edited by L. G. Kelley. NY: Garland Press 1990, cloth, 189pp, a few plates, vf. Out of print for the last three years, this is the definitive edition, well printed and bound, acid free paper. Part of Stanton J. Linden's admirable 'English Renaissance Hermeticism' series. This copy with the ownership signature of B. J. T. Dobbs. Further ownership signature of the book collector James Clark. Issued w/o dj. $250.00

11042. Basil Valentine. BASIL VALENTINE, HIS TRIUMPHANT CHARIOT OF ANTIMONY. Edited by L. G. Kelley. NY: Garland Press 1990, cloth, 189pp, a few plates, vf. $150.00

11039. Basil Valentine. THE TRIUMPHAL CHARIOT OF ANTIMONY. With the Commentary of Theodore Kerckringius... London: Stuart & Watkins 1962 reprint of the James Elliott 1893 edition, fine black cloth with bronze emblem on front cover, spine lettered in bronze, 204pp, spine a bit faded and with two small faint spots else vg-f. Limited to 500 copies, preface by A. E. Waite, one frontis plate. There are now many reprints of this classic, but the Stuart edition was the first and is still the nicest. $100.00

10915. Baskett, Mary W. FOOTPRINTS OF THE BUDDHA. Japanese Buddhist Prints from American and Japanese Collections. Philadelphia: Philadelphia Museum of Art, 1980, quarto, sewn wraps, 125pp, over 100 plates and illustrations, some mounted. Fine copy of this attractive survey. $16.00

11146. Becker, Robert O., and Andrew A. Marino. ELECTROMAGNETISM & LIFE. Albany: SUNY 1982 paperback, 211pp, vg. An extremely important work for anyone investigating mysterious and unknown aspects of electromagnetism. Becker was nominated twice for the Nobel Prize in medicine. $10.00

7027. Beckerlegge, Gwilym, editor. THE WORLD RELIGIONS READER. London: Routledge 1998, large 8vo, paperback, 478pp, with a few black & white illustrations, vf. Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Sikhism. This is a huge compilation of the sacred scriptures of these world religions. It is almost entirely devoted to the religious texts themselves. Another fine book from Routledge. $12.50

11117. Benham, W. Gurney. PLAYING CARDS. History of the Pack and Explanations of it's Many Secrets. London: Ward Lock 1931, tall 8vo, red cloth printed in black, 195pp, many plates, some in color, front hinge badly cracked and strained, o/w vg. $30.00

701. Benjamine, Elbert (AKA C.C.Zain). DOCTRINE OF KABALISM. LA: Church of Light 1935-1936, rare first edition, small 8vo, publ's black limp cloth with gilt lettered and illustrated front cover, 416pp, many astrological, numerological, and symbolic plates. On the Tarot, numerology, Kabbalah, ancient cycles, ancient charms, etc & etc, spine a bit faded else vg-f. From the library of Brian Street, Yakusa man, drug smuggler, jeweler, mountain man, ex-con, astrologer, tarot authority, old friend and book collector extraordinaire, with his penciled "#38" on the front pastedown. His collection grew into the thousands over the years and included 17th Century manuscripts, signed Crowley material, and many Boehme firsts. A few years ago I learned by chance that he attended the same school, in the same class as my mother! He wrote one book on the tarot, unpublished so far (I have the mss). Elbert Benjamine was born in Iowa in 1882. He was a key member in the later years of the HB of L. There is a good biography of him at www.light.org. What we have here are 12 of his original lessons, each with title page. Later there were many individual reprints of each lesson. $285.00

BY D. M. BENNETT,

Editor of "The Truth Seeker," Author of "The World's Sages, Thinkers, and Reformers," "The Champions of the Church," "Thirty Discussions, Bible Stories, Essays, and Lectures," "Interrogatories to Jehovah," "What I Don't Believe, What I Do Believe, Why and Wherefore," "From Behind the Bars," Joint author of "Christianity and Infidelity—the Humphrey-Bennett Discussion," "The Bennett-Teed Discussion," Etc., Etc.

Written in prison while serving out a sentence of thirteen months in the Albany Penitentiary, nominally for sending through the U. S. mails a pamphlet by E. H. Heywood on the subject of Marriage and the Relations of the Sexes, but really for being an Infidel editor and publisher.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

VOL. II.

NEW YORK:
D. M. BENNETT,
LIBERAL AND SCIENTIFIC PUBLISHING HOUSE,
141 EIGHTH STREET,

1880.

8vo, publ's gilt lettered brown cloth, 835+957pp, portrait frontis in each volume, margins lightly browning in volume two, one ep torn, covers just a little rubbed but a very good sound set. Bennett was a freethinker in the tradition of The Truth Seeker school. The aim here is to show the universality of sophisticated religious beliefs beyond the claim of Christianity. In his preface he makes clear his hatred for his "Christian enemies" who he blames for his imprisonment. In case that is not obvious to the reader he has printed on the title page of each volume the following: "Written in prison while serving out a sentence of thirteen months in the Albany Penitentiary, nominally for sending through the U.S. mails a pamphlet by E. H. Heywood on the subject of Marriage and the Relations of the Sexes, but really for being an Infidel editor and publisher." The work is very rare. See the entry in Olcott's Old Diary Leaves, vol.2, p. 327.

3074. Berney, T[homas]. MARRIAGE WITH A DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER, OR A NIECE. Contrary to the Law of God and to the Laws and Customs of the Jews.... London: Author 1886, 7th edition, thin 8vo, gilt ruled red cloth, aeg, 44pp, one plate, tp and frontis printed in color, sewing strained and fragile. With engraved presentation bookplate from the author to the Earl of Clarcarty, "for use in the House of Lords." Historical work on this Biblical marriage tradition, with quotations in Greek and Hebrew. The layout and printing here is exceptional, with Greek and Hebrew marginal notes, tp and plate are bright symbolic lithographs, gold pyramid symbol on front & back covers. The subject has tormented Christian people forever, and was a hot legal issue in the 1800's when marriage to a wife's sister was considered a kind of religious consanguinity. Rare.

10892. Besant, Annie. REINCARNATION. Theosophical Manuals No.2. London: Theosophical Publishing Society, 1892, 2nd edition, 12mo, tan cloth printed in black, 88pp, covers foxed, interesting bookseller tickets, g-vg.

$20.00

3939. Besant, Annie. A STUDY IN CONSCIOUSNESS. A Contribution to the Science of Psychology. London: TPS 1918, 3rd ed, short 8vo, light & dark blue gilt decorated cloth, 460pp, one page slightly miss-bound by the publisher else a vg-f copy of an attractive book, gilt spine. I thought little of Besant's occult writings (as separate from her political writings) until I read Peter Tompkins's book 'The Secret Life of Nature' where he details her clairvoyant investigations into the structure of the atom, investigations that have now been, amazingly, partially confirmed by modern physics.

$90.00

10891. Bhagavad-Gita) Besant, Annie. HINTS ON THE STUDY OF THE BHAGAVAD-GITA. From Lectures Delivered at the Thirtieth Anniversary Meeting of the Theosophical society at Adyar, Madras, December, 1905. Benares: Theosophical Publishing Society, 1906, 12mo, tan cloth lettered in black, 131pp, mostly vg. Apparently the first ed.

$20.00

11062. Bible). THE HOLY BIBLE CONTAINING THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS: Translated out of the Original Tongues; and with the former translations diligently compared and revised, by His Majesty's Special Command. Edinburgh: Sir D. Hunter Blair and M. S. Bruce, 1830, two volumes, octavo, dark blue, paneled, calf, all edges gilt, raised bands, red title labels, gilt lettered and decorated, marbled end papers, text in double column, separate title pages, erratic or no pagination, printers mark on title page, two page dedication to James, begins with Genesis and ends with the Psalms of David (with title page) and bound with The New Testament, (1830), with the Psalms of David in Metre, (1823, both with title page), with table, with paraphrases, with passages of scripture with paraphrase, edges slightly rubbed but a fine crisp and bright copy.

10871. Bible) Barber, John W. et. al. THE BIBLE LOOKING GLASS: Reflector, Companion and Guide to the Great Truths of the Sacred Scriptures, and Illustrating the Diversities of Human Character, and the Qualities of the Human Heart. Consisting of Six Books in Two Parts. Profusely Illustrated by Object Teaching Pictures Showing the Pain and Misery Resulting from Vice, and the Peace and Happiness Arising from Virtue. Philadelphia: Bradley & Co., nd, [1866], large 8vo, deeply embossed green cloth, heavy gilt emblem to front cover (blind at back), dark brown ep's, text in two columns: 112+84+90+139+100pp, + Gray's Elegy at back, 32pp. Very tiny tear to top of spine (1/8"), o/w very good to fine copy, gilt and text bright. Six books in two parts, wonderfully illustrated with hundreds of old woodcuts and engravings, including a folding frontis. Gray's Elegy has a woodcut on every page and is further bordered in black. A beautiful example of both 19th Century book making, and Biblical symbolism and imagery. Very scarce.

8153. Bible) Luther, Martin. DIE BIBEL ODER DIE GANZE HEILIGE SCHRIFT DES ALTEN AND NEUEN TESTAMENTS NACH DER DEUTSCHEN UEBERSETZEUNG. Ganstein'ichen, 1881, 916+163+311pp, with a black & white frontispiece & family register, heavy 8vo, bound in contemporary black calf with heavy gilt stamping to front cover, gilt spine, AEG, cloth hinges, lightly rubbed but very nice and sound. L. F. Pembroke's Bible though there is no internal evidence for this.

$80.00

10862. Bible) Tatlock, John, and Julius Schnorr von Carolsfeld. BIBLE PICTURES. A Series of Illustrations by Julius Schnorr von Carolsfeld, with Letter-press Descriptions by Rev. John Tatlock. Boston: Carter & Karrick 1888, quarto, brick red gilt & embossed cloth, 240pp, approx 100 full page plates consisting of woodcut engravings of Biblical scenes and characters. Plates and text in fine condition, rear cover lightly damp-marked else fine. A nice clean copy of this attractive book. Corolsfeld (1794-1872) worked for awhile on Ludwig's fairy castle Nibelungenlied, then applied his considerable academic knowledge to illustrating the Bible. Later he was awarded a commission to do stained glass for St. Paul's, London. Though he was a Lutheran, his paintings were ecumenical in spirit and appealed to most of Christendom.

$65.00

11030 Blake, William. Garnett, Richard. WILLIAM BLAKE Painter and Poet. [Contained in The Portfolio, No.22). London: Seeley and Co. Limited, 1895, tall 8vo, wraps, 80pp+8pp, seven plates in color or sepia, nice copy but the sewing is strained in places. A scarce volume, beware the cheap Kessinger reprint.

$40.00

11173 Blavatsky, H. P. ISIS UNVEILED A Master-Key to the Mysteries of Ancient and Modern Science and Theology. Volume I: Science. Volume II: Theology. Point Loma: Theosophical Publishing Company 1906 (1877), two volumes, publ's blue gilt cloth, heavy octavo's, portrait frontis in volume one, 628+722+53pp, front hinge cracked on volume one, a few binding marks but a good to vg copy of an early reprint, gilt bright and attractive on the spine, a desirable copy, still evoking the sense and feel of the original Bouton edition of 1877.

352. Blavatsky, H.P. COLLECTED WRITINGS. Edited by Boris de Zirkoff. 15 volumes. Theosophical Society 1988-1992, hardback with dj. Well over 15,000 pages, slightly used set but like new inside. In print at $400.00. This is the largest indexed body of occult writings in English if not in any language and comprises a remarkable encyclopedia of occult and esoteric history and commentary. The range and depth is astonishing, going way beyond Theosophy. The bio-bibliography, fully indexed in the last volume is without doubt the best single source for factual

11147. Breasted, James H. THE DEVELOPMENT OF RELIGION AND THOUGHT IN ANCIENT EGYPT. Philadelphia: Univ of Pennsylvania Press 1959 (1912) paperback, 379pp, vg-f. A major work not to be ignored in the study of Egyptian occultism. $10.00

11195 Bridges, Robert et al. SHAKESPEARE'S ENGLAND. An Account of the Life & Manners of His Age. Oxford: Clarendon Press, second printing 1926 (first 1916), two volumes, large 8vo, blue polished cloth, gilt decorated covers, 546+610pp, printed on laid paper, 195 plates and text illustrations, foot of spines rubbed somewhat else a crisp copy of this special publication of OUP, meant to be an exemplar of their finest text design and trade printing & binding. But it is not just a physical beauty, there are 30 chapters each authored by a leading light and in some cases still the best brief coverage of the subject in English. Chapters on scholarship, handwriting, gardening & farming, medicine, heraldry, costume, the masque, rogues & vagabonds, ballads, booksellers, and a chapter by H. Littledale titled Folklore & Superstition: Ghosts & Fairies, Witchcraft & Devils, and illustrated with a portrait of Dee and an alchemical painting. The first few printings are exceptional but later ones lack the laid paper and superior cloth. $100.00

10939 Brockelmann, Carl. GESCHICHTE DER ISLAMISCHEN VOLKER UND STAATEN. Munchen: R. Oldenbourg, 1943, large 8vo, sewn wraps, 495pp., wraps covered with cello tape, very good copy. Large chronology & index. $20.00

10501 Brooke, John L. THE REFINER'S FIRE. The Making of Mormon Cosmology 1644-1844. Cambridge: CUP 1994, 421pp, illustrated, vf. A large and detailed work, well printed and bound, covering all aspects of the question of native American magic and occultism, unearthing some amazing history. $40.00

11174 Brown, Robert. SEMITIC INFLUENCE IN HELLENIC MYTHOLOGY. London: Williams & Norgate 1898, first edition, publ's red cloth with large gilt emblem on front cover, 228pp, spine rubbed, front hinge a little strained, top of spine a bit torn, a good to vg copy of the rare first edition of Brown's classic work, his 'Third School' of mythology, the Aryo-Semitic school, in opposition (more or less) to Max Muller's and Andrew Lang's. Few people now know the works of Brown, yet all the 19th century scholars cribbed from his pioneering books. $65.00

11145 Brumbaugh, Robert S. THE PHILOSOPHERS OF GREECE. Albany: SUNY 1981 paperback, 274pp, vg. Brumbaugh authored a key work on the Voynich Manuscript. $12.00

- 11115 Castelli, Alfredo. VIAGGIO CURIOSO NEL MONDO DELLE CARTE. Milan Fratelli Fabbri Editori 1975, glossy boards, 159pp, profusely illustrated mostly in B & W, three passages of the bibliography has been highlighted in green else vg. $75.00
- 10988 Catalog) Dailey, William & Victoria. ARCANA. CATALOGUE NO.51. Rare & Curious Volumes on Alchemy, Archaeology & the Ancients Magic, Mesmerism, Philosophy & Forgotten Lore. Los Angeles: William & Victoria Dailey, Ltd., nd, stapled wraps, c. 1988, Catalogue 51, 411 items, illustrated, handsomely typeset by Dailey, who is also a fine letterpress printer and publisher. This is one of the most sophisticated occult book catalogs produced in America. Bill Dailey had impeccable taste when he gathered these volumes. Nearly every volume is researched and commented on. The range is very democratic, from a $15.00 account of astral projection, to astrological and alchemical manuscripts. One special highlight, George Bacon's On 'The Writing of the Insane', a rare and bizarre volume unparalleled to this day. $60.00
- 10887 Catalog) Fields Book Store. FIELDS BOOK STORE. Catalogue No. 4. San Francisco: Fields Book Store, nd, c.1988, stapled booklet, 158 items, small stain on front cover. George Fields issued three catalogs in the 1930's and 1940's, but this was the first (and so far only) occult catalog issued by this 76 year old firm, still in the same location all these years on Polk Street. The books were cataloged by Richard Hackney and contain very detailed descriptions of works he purchased in England during a lucky buying trip that included a visit to the home and treasure trove of a special unnamed collector. $16.00
- 10240 Catalog) (Lovecraft) Dawson's Book Shop. THE WORLDS OF H. P. LOVECRAFT AND OTHER WRITERS OF WEIRD FICTION. Catalogue 464. LA: Dawson's Book Shop 1981, approximately 40pp, stapled pamphlet, describes 255 items, with some b & w illustrations, a little writing on the front cover, vg-f. Dawson's is one of America's oldest and most respected antiquarian dealers. Most books here have some kind of annotation regarding their content and/or importance or scarcity. $10.00
- 11170 Catalog) Quaritch. BIBLES & THEOLOGY. FREEMASONRY. OCCULT SCIENCES. PHILOSOPHY & PSYCHOLOGY. Six catalogs sold together. Catalogs 666, 698, 728, 750, 775, 825. London: Bernard Quaritch 1949-1962, stapled wraps, 100+120+112+120+98+84pp, plates, a little browning to some but very good condition. This is an uncommon opportunity to buy six of the very best catalogs that Quaritch--arguably the greatest rare book firm in the English speaking world--issued specializing in these subjects. Together thees comprise most of the catalogs issued as such by this firm. Approximately 8,000 titles described, some at length. Crowley, Waite, Paracelsus, rare alchemical manuscripts, early & rare Bibles, folklore, black magic, etc & etc. $180.00

11087 Catalog) Smith, David Eugene. RARA ARITHMETICA. (2 vols). A Catalogue of the Arithmetics Written Before the Year MDCI with a Description of Those in the Library of George Arthur Plimpton of New York. Boston: Ginn and Company, 1908, publ's blue cloth with printed paper spine label, 507pp, illustrated with nine plates and many woodcuts in the text, one plate loose else a fine copy, from the library of Bernard M. Rosenthal with his booklabel. With: 'Addenda to Rara Arithmetica Which Described in 1908 Such European Arithmetics Printed Before 1601 as Were Then in the Library of the Late George Arthur Plimpton', Boston: Ginn & Co., 1939, 55pp, sewn wraps, vg. Together a generous bibliographical treatment of this collection of incunables, each described in detail with many long annotations and further references. It is rarely found with the addenda. The addenda is mostly concerned with corrections and some additions as well, and is nicely illustrated and printed. $280.00

10865 Chambers, R, Editor. CHAMBERS'S CYCLOPEDIA OF ENGLISH LITERATURE. A History, Critical and Biographical, of British Authors with Specimens of their Writings.... Boston: Gould & Lincoln 1853, two volumes, large heavy 8vo, pub's cloth, 671+703pp, woodcuts and plates throughout. This earlier edition ("15th thousands") has steel engravings not seen in many later editions. A good copy, strong and sturdy but the spine ends have a few chips (one about half-an-inch square), and the back cover of the second volume is warped and stained from heavy damp exposure. On the front fly is the signature of the famous American book collector Arnold Green, and in his hand "from his mother" and dated 1854. This must have been one of his early books as his collection (dubbed at the time as "the best that this country has seen" by the NYT) was put on the market by Bangs & Brothers, with a catalog written by Green, in 1901. His collection was focused on the Transcendentalists and it was massive. To this day his books can be found in used and rare book shops. $100.00

10864 Chambers, R, Editor. CHAMBERS'S CYCLOPEDIA OF ENGLISH LITERATURE [FOUR VOLUMES]. A History, Critical and Biographical, of British Authors with Specimens of their Writings.... London: Chambers 1889, two volumes, large heavy 8vo, three-quarters calf, ribbed spine, marbled edges, 823+831pp, woodcuts and plates throughout. Besides being a massive reference, the arrangement and selection of texts makes this entertaining as well. Sold with: Chambers. THE BOOK OF DAYS. A Miscellany of Popular Antiquities in Connection with The Calendar. Including Anecdote, Biography & History. Curiosities of Literature and Oddities of Human Life and Character. London: Chambers 1863, two volumes, large heavy 8vo, extra gilt cloth with cont calf spines, marbled ep's, tp's rubricated, 832+839pp, illustrated with woodcuts in the text, old scrape to spine of volume two o/w a handsome set in very good condition. Mystic memory; Edward Gibbon; the history of Good Friday; facts of Shakespeare's birth; Cagliostro; Hearne the Antiquary; church bells; curiosities surrounding the execution of Charles the I; Saint Anthony; primitive almanacs; etc & etc, incredible detail. Chambers was a zealous and indefatigable compiler of historical fact and literary curiosity. For the average reader his book are overwhelming compendiums of knowledge in tiny print, meticulously organized. Along with his Encyclopedia of English Literature, these two titles are his most famous and compendious titles, he edited or wrote many others. Both titles offered here are in very good to fine condition, most sets on the market are damaged, ex-lib, rebound or in England. $350.00

8305 Chapman, Arthur Wood. THE PROPHECY OF THE PYRAMID. A Dated Forecast of Our Times with the Depression's Purpose and Its Aftermath Foretold. Holyoke: Elizabeth Towne (L.N. Fowler & Co) 1933, small 8vo, stapled booklet, 47pp, vg-f. A work of occult pyramidology, with a two page chart of the grand shaft. Additionally the author offers a "dated forecast of our times with depressions' purpose and aftermath foretold" The cover reads "Forewarned is Forearmed!" $16.00

10866 Cleary, Thomas & Sartaz Aziz. TWILIGHT GODDESS. Spiritual Feminism and Feminine Spirituality. Shambhala 2000, hardcover & dj, 275pp, a few plates. Highly recommended. Cleary is one of the world's most respected translators. Together with Aziz, who is a Pakistan born professor of Asian literature, they have written one of the most interesting books on goddess and tantric worship of recent times. Chapters on both the history, and the practice (past and present) of goddess worship in the east, with much commentary contrasting it with the west. I read it through the first time I picked it up, fascinating. Their writing style is an admirable and seldom encountered blend of scholarly investigation along with a fast-paced narrative retelling of stories and the deeds of historical characters. There is also a large chapter on the precise methods of prolonging orgasm in various secret cults, and the relation of orgasm control with longevity in the Taoist tradition, exposing a number of well respected but erroneous beliefs held by most scholars. This volume serves as much needed corrective to the relentless flood of texts by new age ignoramuses. $16.00

11075 Dasgupta, Shashibhusan. OBSCURE RELIGIOUS CULTS. Calcutta: Firma KLM 1995 (1969), cloth & dj, 436pp, vg+ Written in 1939 but not published till 1946 because of "paper scarcity", this is a slightly revised edition. The book is op and hard to come by now. Dasgupta, (not to be confused with the Sanskrit scholar Surendranath Dasgupta) prevails where others have failed. His scholarship has been vetted over the years by many authorities who have declared their debt to him. $100.00

11089 Davies, Edward. THE MYTHOLOGY AND RITES OF THE BRITISH DRUIDS, ASCERTAINED BY NATIONAL DOCUMENTS; And Compared with the General Traditions and Customs of Heathenism. As Illustrated by the Most Eminent Antiquaries of Our Age. With an Appendix Containing Ancient Poems and Extracts, With Some Remarks on Ancient British Coins. London: J Booth, 1809, large 8vo, contemporary brown ribbed cloth stamped in blind, 642pp plus index, frontis plate, foxing to a few gatherings (possibly due to a different paper stock), offsetting from the frontis to the title page, top of spine a little bit chipped but still an excellent copy, gilt bright, wide margins, clear dark impressions of the type, hinges and sewing strong and tight, the paper--with the exception of the foxing in places--is bright and white, a clean and strong copy in contemporary cloth, rare as such. $450.00

11082 Davis, Andrew Jackson. PHILOSOPHY OF SPECIAL PROVIDENCES. A VISION. [WITH:] FREE THOUGHTS CONCERNING RELIGION; OR NATURE VERSUS THEOLOGY. [WITH:] HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF EVIL; WITH SUGGESTIONS FOR MORE ENABLING INSTITUTIONS, AND PHILOSOPHICAL SYSTEMS OF EDUCATION. Three works bound together. Philosophy of Special Providences, Boston: Bela Marsh 1858, ninth edition, 55pp plus 7pp of publ's ads. Free Thoughts Concerning Religion, Boston: Bela Marsh 1858, third edition, 38pp plus publ's list (repeated). History & Philosophy of Evil, Boston: Bela Marsh 1858, first edition, 118pp, last blanks covered with new clippings. All crudely bound together in contemporary flexible leather, stitched, last leaves (with clippings) edge-worn, some waterstaining throughout, occasional foxing, a good copy, sturdy and complete. Following the first work is a highly interesting 32 page illustrated advertisement for Laroy Sunderland, a Boston based spiritualist and herbalist and no doubt connected with Davis who also lived in Boston at this time. Davis had a habit of revising his books in the early years and his first five or six titles went through many revisions, all now rare. $850.00

10855 Dee, John. THE DIARIES OF JOHN DEE. Edited by Edward Fenton. Day Books 1998, hardbound in jacket, 369pp, new. It turns out that Halliwell, the man who published Dee's diary in 1842 couldn't read most of Dee's handwriting, especially the occult sigils and symbols, so he left that material out! Also, in that year alone he published 50 books, an almost inconceivable number for such a small operation as his, so he probably didn't take much time with any of his books. Edward Fenton has here restored for us the complete diary, after thoroughly transcribing the manuscript in the British Museum. This is a major literary event for all students of renaissance hermeticism. Includes entries on sex-magic, alchemical experiments, his life in Prague, his wife-swapping, plus glossary, gazetteer, and an excellent 25 page biographical guide to significant persons in Dee's life. $37.95

10968 Dehan, Emmanuel. SHRINES AND MONUMENTS IN WESTERN JERUSALEM AND JUDEA. The Chagall Windows at the Hadassah Medical Center. Israel: Emmanuel Dehan, 1986, contains 6 maps and 160 colour pictures, glossy sewn paperback, 95pp., profusely illustrated. I have to admit a bias for these tourist publications and I buy them wherever I go, they are often uniquely informative in concise ways not found in other texts, and always lavishly illustrated. The best ones, like this, are mini-epitomes of the subject and can be consulted with ease. While the author has written many books both popular and scholarly this one is very scarce, (though I would not be surprised if it was still being sold new in Israel). The full subtitle reads: Yad Vashem the Memorial for the Martyrs and Heroes of the Holocaust. Ein Karem Birthplace of St. John the Baptist. Mount Herzl. The Military Cemetery. The Kennedy Memorial. Through the Hill Country of Judea. The Scroll of Fire. The Martyrs' Forest. St. John's "Wilderness". The Brook of Soreq. The Stalactite Cave. Bethar-Bar-Kokhbah's Last Stronghold. 1407 Dubois, J.A. HINDU MANNERS, CUSTOMS, AND CEREMONIES. Translated & Edited by Henry K. Beauchamp. With an introduction by Max Muller. Oxford: Clarendon 1953 (1906) Third Edition, short 8vo, bound Oxford's handsome blue polished cloth gilt lettered, 741pp, frontis portrait of the author in a turban and holding his walking stick, front hinge cracked but a nice copy. The first edition was 1897, this is simply a reprint even though Oxford calls it the "third edition" on the title page. An epitome of Hindu religion and philosophy. In the preface by Max Muller we learn that Dubois was "...a man remarkably free of theological prejudice," and calls this "...a work which will always retain its value..." Dubois, who was fluent in Tamil, spent much of his life in India, especially during the period of 1792-1823, where he observed fantastical things that were later stamped out by the British, such as suttee, and the burning of a king and his two wives. Dubois' work is free from modernist garble and of permanent value. Chapters on the Kali Yuga, advantage of the caste system, the pariah classes, the various castes of the Brahmins, the pavadam sacrifice, long chapters on the theological systems and the guru, with a "portrait of a true Guru", worship of animals, Hindu feasts, and a huge section on Brahminical culture, morality, fasting, marriage, poetry, fables, ceremonies, etc & etc. $35.00

11098 Dummett Michael. THE GAME OF TAROT. From Ferrara to Salt Lake City. London: Duckworth 1980 1st ed, quarto, fine brown cloth in dj, 600pp, sewn signatures, 36 pages of color and B & W plates printed on glazed stock, fine copy in very slightly rubbed dust jacket, with a typed letter signed from Dummett laid in and photocopies of two other letters and another note from him in pen. Still the most reliable and complete history in English. It took a materialist critic to write the best history of the subject. The Edwin Mellen Press issued a wretched reprint a few years ago, glued, reduced, B & W, and very expensive. $375.00

10910 Dunsany) Bierstadt, Edward Hale. DUNSANY THE DRAMATIST. With Illustrations. Boston: Little, Brown, and Company, 1917, red cloth with gilt front cover, 184pp, frontis and plates, a fine copy. A lovely presentation, the plates are of portraits, letters, his study, stages, actors, etc. This was the first biography of Dunsany and includes some original comments of his on various editions of his works. $18.00

10965 Dunsany, Lord. A NIGHT AT AN INN. A Play in One Act. New York: The Sunwise Turn, Inc., 1916, 2nd printing, blue stapled wraps, 34pp, edges of wraps a bit ruffled, vg-f. Published by the book store that was the center of Ananda Coomaraswamy's circle and the site of many meetings between him, the local anarchist community and radical French avant-garde hipsters. Sunwise Turn published AC's most famous book, the Dance of Siva. Most of their books are rare. $45.00

11057 During, Monika V., Georges Didi-Huberman, Marta Poggese. ENCYCLOPEDIA ANATOMICA. A Complete Collection of Anatomical Waxes. Koln: Taschen, 2004, glossy flexible covers, 703pp, printed on coated stock, profusely illustrated, new copies. One of my favorite books of the last few years, an astounding survey, magically photographed, of the collection of "wax" figures created--and still on display--at the Imperial Regio Museo di Fisica e Storia Naturale in 1775. Every single part of the human anatomy was cast in a somewhat mysterious process and the resulting 'wax' bodies, all either life sized or larger, were then arranged in remarkable artistic dioramas such as "death," "the triumph of time," "the plague," "syphilis" etc. Then each part of the body was also displayed individually so one can see here brains, hearts, testicles, penises, ovaries, eyeballs, veins, skulls, wombs, fetuses (in all stages of growth), babies, old people, deformed bodies, decaying bodies, etc & etc. Tri-lingual edition, German, English and Italian. Another publishing feat and feast by Taschen. $29.95

375 Eirenaeus Philalethes. ALCHEMICAL WORKS: EIRENAEUS PHILALETHES COMPILED. Edited by S. Merrow Broddle. Boulder: Cinnabar 1994, hardcover with dj, 570pp, printed on alkaline paper, a fine copy. Only one thousand copies printed. This book, commissioned by an anonymous student of the art, is a fabulous treasury of the collected English works of one of the most enigmatic alchemists of all time, whose true identity eluded scholars for 400 years. Eighteen separate works are gathered here. Complete English translations of the following books: Marrow of Alchemy, Ripley Reviv'd, Exposition upon Sir George Ripley's Epistle to King Edward IV, Exposition upon the First Six Gates of Sir George Ripley's Compound of Alchymie, Experiments for the Preparation of the Sophick Mercury, A Breviary of Alchemy, Exposition upon Sir George Ripley's Vision, Secrets Reveal'd: or, An Open Entrance to the Shut-Palace of the King, Ars Metallorum Metamorphose s, and a number of other smaller tracts. Op and very scarce now. $400.00

11019 Eliade, Mircea. JOURNAL I 1945-1955. Translated from the Romanian by Mac Linscott Ricketts. Chicago: The University of Chicago Press, 1990, quality cloth & dj, 219pp. A book that left me hungry to read everything Eliade wrote. He is a master story teller here, recounting his years in an ashram, time with Jung, etc. $16.00

11166 Empedocles. EMPEDOCLES: THE EXTANT FRAGMENTS. Edited by M. R. Wright. Yale 1981, cloth, 364pp, fine cond. The definitive book on Empedocles, Wright provides a 90-page biographical and historical introduction, 60 pages of Greek text, and 150 pages of translations of all surviving fragments, plus four indexes and a detailed bibliography. One of the most Pythagorean of the pre-Socratics, he was the first to propound the four elements basic to life and symbols for cosmic harmony. He was also a vegetarian: "Alas that the pitless day did not destroy me first, before I devised for my lips the cruel deed of eating flesh." $60.00

5797 Ennemoser, Joseph. THE HISTORY OF MAGIC. Translated by William Howitt. With a New Introduction by Omar V. Garrison. New Hyde Park: University Books 1970, cloth & dj, two volumes, 471+518pp, cloth marked on volume one, jackets a bit rubbed, else vg. Ennemoser's complete text, with many additions in volume two by Mary & William Howitt. This edition was first published in 1954. $75.00

- 11079 Forster, Charles. THE ONE PRIMEVAL LANGUAGE. ALPHABETIC CHARACTERS OF LOST POWERS FROM THE FOUR CONTINENTS. INCLUDING THE VOICE OF ISRAEL FROM THE ROCKS OF SINAI: AND THE VESTIGES OF PATRIARCHAL TRADITIONS FROM THE MONUMENTS OF EGYPT, ETRURIA, AND SOUTHERN ARABIA, WITH ILLUSTRATIVE PLATES, A HARMONIZED TABLE OF ALPHABETS, GLOSSARIES, AND TRANSLATIONS. [3 volumes]. London: Richard Bentley, 1852-4. Three volumes. Volume one is the second edition, others are first editions. Uniformly bound in publ's green cloth, large gilt illustration on each cover, 190+300+354pp, volume one in very good condition with slightly chipped spine, volume two is a fine copy, tight & bright, volume three is internally vg but the joints are fairly chipped, all plates and text in very good to fine condition. Volume one is subtitled: The Voice of Israel From the Rocks of Sinai, or, The Sinaitic Inscriptions Contemporary Records of the Miracles and Wanderings of the Exode. It is illustrated with seven plates, one of which is a sepia-tinted lithograph and the others are folding and extending, and with two additional plates not called for in the binder's instruction one of which is a handsome engraving of a cairn. At the end is a folding colored map (also not called for) of Arabia. Volume two is subtitled: The Monuments of Egypt and Their Vestiges of Patriarchal Traditions, it is illustrated with 15 plates most of which are folding and extending. The third volume is subtitled: The Monuments of Assyria, Babylonia, and Persia with A New Key for the Recovery of the Lost Ten Tribes. Of the 11 plates and engravings here four are colored lithographs. Later there was a chart that was issued, rare now, not present here. The work is elaborately illustrated. One interesting aspect of Forster's work is that besides his extensive study of hieroglyphics and other ancient glyphs he also paid close attention to the rock art he found during his travels in the Middle East. Some years ago there was an Indian reprint of this work but it was truncated and lacked most of the plates. $750.00

11016 France, Anatole. THE GODS ARE ATHIRST. Translation by Mrs. Wilfrid Jackson. London: John Lane the Bodley Head Ltd., 1913, red gilt cloth, dj, 285pp, very fine condition, bright & fresh. A volume from the Works of Anatole France. The son of a bookseller, France spent most of his life around books. His father's bookstore was called the Librairie France. Anatole France studied at the Collège Stanislas and after graduation he helped his father by working at his bookstore. After several years he secured the position of a cataloguer at Bachelin-Deflorenne and at Lemerre, and in 1876 he was appointed a librarian for the French Senate. Ironic, skeptical, he was considered in his day the ideal French man of letters. He was elected to the Académie française in 1896 and was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1921. He is buried in the Neuilly-sur-Seine community cemetery near Paris. "I prefer the folly of enthusiasm to the indifference of wisdom." $25.00

SLC Utah: Paracelsus Research Society 1960-1972, reprint, one of 500 copies bound in publ's dark blue imitation morocco fabrikoid, silver lettering, heavy 8vo, all with original color covers and many plates and illustrations, including precious photos of Albertus in the lab, his house, his library, etc. Very rare. One tiny stain on the rear fly else very good condition, strongly sewn, printed on glossy stock, nice. This copy comes from library of the late Ivan St. John, alchemist, trance medium, and homeopathic doctor who along with Francis Rath founded The Philosopher's Stone, a well loved occult book store in San Francisco that was a center of Bay Area activity during 1971-1988. $4,800.00

1862 Gauld, Alan. A HISTORY OF HYPNOTISM. Cambridge 1992, cloth, large sewn octavo, 738pp, vg. This massive new history, written with a sympathy for the paranormal and the unusual (the author also wrote a history of psychical research, and was an officer of the SPR), begins with a substantial 275-page history and analysis of Mesmerism in all its forms, including mystical magnetism in Germany and France, Electrobiology, Reichenbach, etc. & etc., and ends with a 100-page bibliography and two indexes. Widely regarded as the best history. $150.00

3285 Geber, (i.e. Jabir ibn Hayyam). THE ALCHEMICAL WORKS OF GEBER. Translated into English in 1678 by Richard Russell. Introduction by E.J. Holmyard. Preface by Todd Pratum. Weiser 1994 (1928), cloth & dj, 264pp, illustrated, glossary, analytical table of contents, very fine condition. One of 999 numbered copies of this reprint of the 1928 Penguin edition titled The Works of Geber. The treasures of Islamic alchemy were almost single-handedly brought to the modern English speaking world with this edition by E.J. Holmyard. It remains a key document for the study of Arabic alchemy, though Holmyard's researches on the identity of Geber have now proved incorrect. The only other full edition of the alchemical writings of Geber in English is the Newman edition published by Brill at $300.00 $145.00

11044 Hall, Manly P. AN ENCYCLOPEDIA OUTLINE OF MASONIC, HERMETIC, QABBALISTIC AND ROSICRUCIAN SYMBOLICAL PHILOSOPHY. Being an Interpretation of the Secret Teachings Concealed Within the Rituals, Allegories, and Mysteries of All Ages. LA: Philosophical Research Society 1979 (1975) third printing, large heavy folio, tan spine with imitation tan & brown marbled paper-covered boards, imitation marbled end papers, gilt lettered front cover, 245pp plus 48 full color plates (some folding), plus 203 B&W text illustrations, bibliography and index—both very lengthy. Autographed copy, vg-f condition. Laid in is a handsome folio engraved print by an unknown artist, numbered & signed and dedicated to Ivan St. John, a deep impression of the plate, mint condition. Titled “La Nuit” (the night) It portrays two obelisks, one with a winged figure atop. This is the third printing of the ‘Golden Anniversary’ edition, a facsimile reproduction of the famous 1928 original. It was the only reprint ever done that is the same size and format as the giant folio original edition of 1928. Then in 1998, after this edition was sold out (1000 copies as I remember it but no limitation number was ever stated) PRS issued a new reprint, the “Diamond Jubilee Edition” and I sold quite a few of these reprints, again same size as the original. But after a few years I heard reports from a few customers that the sewing had come loose and when I called PRS they told me the printer this time was in Taiwan, a normally good place to have books made but upon closer examination I could see that the sewing was too tight. That reprint is in print at $185.00. This older reprint is as sturdy as can be. I have a copy I have been bringing around to kids in homeless shelters and after heavy use the sewing is still strong. The original of 1928 was a handsomely designed and printed work by John Henry Nash, one of America’s greatest text designers & printers. But because of the subject matter, this book is rarely acclaimed as the printing monument it is. Those original editions sell for well over $2000, and it can justifiably be called one of the great occult books of all time. It has been in print continuously in one form or another since 1928. The other reprints are quarto in size and hence considerably smaller print—readable—with strain. The new Tarcher paper edition is even worse, a horrible dumbing down of this beauty. There are 45 chapters: The Ancient Mysteries and Secret Societies Which Have Influenced Modern Masonic Symbolism; Atlantis and the Gods of Antiquity; the Life and Writings of Toth Hermes Trismegistus; the Initiation of the Pyramid; Isis, etc & etc. The 48 color plates are variously brilliant, odd, symbolic, curious, dignified, amateurish, but always interesting. The hundreds of medieval B & W woodcuts are exceptionally well displayed and printed. $400.00

A Collection of Creeds Belonging to the Ancient Western Church, and to the Medaeval English Church, Arranged in Chronological Order, and After the Manner of A Harmony. Oxford: At The University Press, 1858, old binder's cloth, 171pp plus publ's catalog at back, spine torn and ragged, rear cover detached, one page of publ's catalog torn, front fly gone, in spite of the poor binding the text has survived in remarkable shape, clean and tight. An unusual work that traces creeds through ancient texts. Heurtley was Margaret Professor of Divinity, and Canon of Christ Church. $140.00
- 11141 Hill, Ann, editor. A VISUAL ENCYCLOPEDIA OF UNCONVENTIONAL MEDICINE. NY: Crown 1979, large 8vo, paperback, 240pp, worn but sold copy. All these years and I still have never seen a work like this, it is simply amazing what the editor found in her pursuit of a complete overview of the subject, and beautifully illustrated with rare and unusual photographs, old woodcuts and plates from classic and little known books. $10.00
- 11119 Hill, Roland. LORD ACTON. New Haven: Yale 2000, cloth & dj, 548pp, a few illustrations, fine. Was Lord Acton the most knowledgeable man England ever produced in the 20th century? It's almost impossible, I think, for us feeble minded products of American public schooling, to conceive of such learning. $27.50

885 Hillman, James. A BLUE FIRE. Introduction by Thomas Moore. NY: H & R, 1989, half cloth, 323pp, dj. A selection of his work, many from the journal Spring. $10.00

10985 Hills, Christopher B. NUCLEAR EVOLUTION. London: Centre Community Publications, 1968, small 8vo, paperback, 152pp, vg. This is the first edition of a book that was dramatically enlarged later. If you have that magnum opus (now op and impossible to find) then this is really just an interesting curiosity, if not then get this (itself scarce). Christopher Hills was true visionary and great yogi and I'll never forget meeting him. This book was written before he moved to California and established The University of the Trees in Santa Cruz CA. $45.00

10918 Hinkel, Friedrich W. EXODUS FROM NUBIA. Berlin: Akademie-Verlag, 1978, quarto, cloth & dj, 90pp, plates abounding. More interesting to me than I would have ever imagined, an amazing work. Copies are scarce on the net and it was no doubt published in a small quantity. $50.00

11192 Hobhouse, Christopher. OXFORD. As it Was and as it Is To-Day. London: Batsford 1942, cloth & dj, 120pp, wonderfully illustrated with documentary photographs, jacket worn book mostly very good. Batsford's books are a special treasure for bibliophiles, and to have this one on Oxford and its libraries and colleges is particularly enjoyable. Sold with John Steegmann's Cambridge, Batsford 1945, same condition. $35.00

10952 Hodson, Geoffrey. CLAIRVOYANT INVESTIGATIONS. Wheaton: The Theosophical Publishing House, 1984, paperback printed on glossy stock with color plates, 140pp, fine. OP. $12.00

10908 Hodson, Geoffrey. THE SEVEN HUMAN TEMPERAMENTS. Adyar: The Theosophical Publishing House, 1973, (1952), small 8vo, cloth & dj, 81pp, large folding and extending chart in color, a fine copy with the signature of Ralph Metzner on the front fly and seven pages of relevant notes in his hand laid in. $35.00

10998 Hornblower, Simon and Antony Spawforth. THE OXFORD CLASSICAL DICTIONARY. Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1996, 3rd Edition, hardcover, dj, large heavy 8vo, 1640pp, vf. In print at $125.00 $75.00

Hulbert, nd, (1826?), 2nd edition, 464pp, modern plain fabrikoid, nine plates & frontis, a fine crisp copy, rare. The Druid section is 42pp, other chapters on paganism, Islam, Judaism, Deists, etc. $350.00

11065 Hunter, Richard, and Ida Macalpine. THREE HUNDRED YEARS OF PSYCHIATRY 1535-1860. Hartsdale, Carlisle Publishing, 1982 (1963), large heavy 8vo, stout cloth, dust jacket,

1107pp, illustrated, vg-f. High quality corrected reprint of the OUP edition, both now op. No work can compare--the pinnacle of psychiatric history. $250.00

10859 Hurry, Jamieson B. IMHOTEP. The Vizier and Physician of King Zoser and Afterwards The God of Egyptian Medicine. OUP 2000 (1926), hardcover & dj, 118pp, frontis plus 16 plates. Hurry writes from a medical perspective. He dedicated the book to Imhotep. $20.00

10991 Hurtak, J.J. THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE: THE KEYS OF ENOCH. A Teaching Given on Seven Levels to be Read and Visualized in Preparation for the Brotherhood of Light. To be Delivered for the Quickening of the "People of Light". Los Gatos: The Academy For Future Science, 1996, white gilt cloth, 614pp, vf. With elaborate autograph of Hurtak on the title page. $200.00

10934 Jaquin, Noel. PRACTICAL PALMISTRY. A Study of the Human Hand (The Living Symbol) in Relation to Human Conduct and Living, with an Explanation of the Processes to be Employed in its Interpretation. Bombay: D. B. Taraporevala Sons & Co. Private Ltd., 1964 reprint, hardcover, dj, 170pp, jacket worn. Surprisingly good reproduction of the plates. $14.00

11142 Jayne, Walter Addison. THE HEALING GODS OF ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS. NHP: University Books 1962 (1925), large 8vo, cloth & boards, 569pp, good copy of this clear reprint. $18.00

11112 Jennings, Hargrave. THE ROSICRUCIANS, THEIR RITES AND MYSTERIES. London: Geo. Routledge c.1920's, blue cloth with gilt spine and blind embossed front cover, 464pp plus 12 pages on thick stock at back, mostly very good, spine tips with just a bit of wear. Although stated as the "fourth edition" on the title page, it is actually a reissue of the third edition but leaving out some of the text figures in that edition. All further editions are the same. This is one of the most bizarre books on the subject, yet it has little real information of the Rosicrucians per se, but more on occult symbolism, secret societies, ciphers, Fludd, Kabbalah, Boehme, fire rituals and other curious occult researches. $90.00

11129 Jess. JESS. A GRAND COLLAGE 1951-1993. Organized by Michael Auping. Essays by Michael Auping, Robert J. Bertholf, Michael Palmer. Buffalo: Albright-Kox Art Gallery 1993, cloth & dj, oblong quarto, 243pp, profusely illustrated in color and B & W, fine copy. In the late 1980's Jess popped into my bookstore on Valencia Street a few times and gave us some photocopies of his collages. At the time I had no idea who he was even though his partner Robert Duncan also would browse our shelves. $300.00

10914 Jo Anne Van Tilburg, editor. ANCIENT IMAGES ON STONE. Rock Art of the California's. Foreword by Campbell Grant and essays by Frank Bock, Ken Hedges, E. C. Krupp, Frank LaPena, Georgia Lee, Clement W. Meighan, Mark Oliver and William D. Hyder, Gerald Smith, Wilson G. Turner, and Jo Anne Van Tilburg. Los Angeles: The Institute of Archaeology at UCLA, oblong paperback, 1983, 128pp, a few color plates but mostly text. An important collection of papers. $15.00

10960 Jonson, Ben. THE ALCHEMIST. Edited by Douglas Brown. New York: Hill and Wang, nd, cloth, 150pp., vg-f. An excellent edition with a lot of good footnotes and lengthy introduction. Cloth editions are scarce. $30.00

11178 Josephy, Alvin M. THE INDIAN HERITAGE OF AMERICA. Knopf 1968, cloth, 384pp, plates, good-vg copy. Text superbly laid out, typical of older Knopf books. Few books on the subject have garnered the praise of Indian scholars, Josephy, who authored the monumental '500 Nations,' is one of those favored few. $10.00

11011 Jung, C. G. THE ARCHETYPES AND THE COLLECTIVE UNCONSCIOUS. Translated by R. F. C. Hull. Princeton: Princeton University Press, 1969, cloth & dj, 451pp, binding a bit worn, jacket torn, a few pages wavy from damp, a good copy. $20.00

- 7856 Jung, C. G. MYSTERIUM CONIUNCTIONIS An Inquiry into the Separation and Synthesis of Psychic Opposites in Alchemy. NY: Pantheon 1963, first edition in English, first printing, 704pp, a few plates, covers a bit spotted, trivial pencil marginalia in a few places, strong sound copy. $20.00
- 11010 Jung, C. G. MYSTERIUM CONIUNCTIONIS An Inquiry into the Separation and Synthesis of Psychic Opposites in Alchemy. Translated by R. F. C. Hull. New York: Bollingen Foundation, 1963, cloth & dj, 704pp, 1st printing, jacket is a bit rubbed, book fine. $35.00
- 3365 Jung, C. G. PSYCHOLOGY AND ALCHEMY. Pantheon 1968, first printing of the second revised edition, cloth & dj, 571pp, jacket worn, book musty. Here is a cheap reading copy. If you want to be serious about reading this monument you will want a first printing of the first edition (English), and a copy of this--the first printing of the second edition, (much revised). One of the most important books on alchemy ever published. It has the same number of illustrations as the first edition (270) but with a "completely revised" text. The illustrations in these early printings are much higher quality than the blurry ones of recent printings. $25.00
- 10989 Jung, C. G., Karl Kerényi, and Paul Radin. DER GOTTLICHE SCHELM. Ein Indianischer Mythen-Zyklus. Zurich: Rhein-Verlag AG, 1954, vellum-backed printed boards, 219pp., plates, fine. First edition, rare. Later published in paperback. $90.00
- 11055 Jungbauer, Gustav. BIBLIOGRAPHIE DES DEUTSCHEN VOLKSLIEDES IN BOHMEN. Prag, 1913, 240pp, library boards with cloth spine and manuscript title, fine. 1st ed, reprinted by Olms at $150.00. A major bibliography of German folksong. $60.00
- 10905 [Kahn, Inayat]. TOWARD THE ONE. The Perfection of Love, Harmony, and Beauty the Only Being United with all the Illuminated Souls who Form the Embodiment of the Master the Spirit of Guidance. New York: Harper Colophon Books, 1974, large 8vo, paperback, 678pp, folding & extending color poster laid in, profusely illustrated, decorated margins and borders, back cover unevenly faded, joints lightly worn, firm, vg-f. This book, a classic of the late bloom of the Sixties is notoriously difficult to find in nice condition because the text block is physically too large for the glued spine and is usually found cracked and/or loose, the poster is also uncommon. $85.00
- 10936 Kaplan, Aryeh. INNERSPACE. Introduction to Kabbalah, Meditation and Prophecy. Edited by Abraham Sutton. Jerusalem: Vagshal Ltd., 1991, 254pp, vg. $19.00
- 4085 Kerényi, C. DIONYSOS. Archetypal Image of Indestructible Life. Translated from the German by Ralph Manheim. Princeton Univ Press/Bollingen 1976, small thick quarto, first edition in English, large 8vo, 474pp, 146 plates and illustrations, a nice copy, jacket only slightly dust-soiled, text bright & clean. The paperback reprint is about half the size of this. Bound in Bollingen's handsome two-piece cloth binding, with gilt Gnostic cross on the front cover, printed on alkaline paper and sewn. Arguably Kerényi's most important work and still the best on the subject. $175.00
- 10867 Kirchweyer, Anton Joseph. ANNULUS PLATONIS. (Aurea Catena Homeri) oder physikalisch-chymische. Erflarung Der Natur nach ihrer. Entstehung, Erhaltung und Zerstorung. Berlin: Germann Barsdorf Verlag, 1921 reprint of the 1781 edition, 551pp., modern fabrikoid, plainly bound, small private library sticker on spine, three plates, a few neat pencil marginal notes by Leonard Pembroke, text very lightly age-toned, a good strong sewn edition. $400.00
- 4096 Klossowski de Rola, Stanislas. ALCHEMY THE SECRET ART. NY: Bounty 1978 reprint, quarto, 128pp, profusely illustrated, first hardcover edition, book is fine and crisp, jacket with just a few tiny tears, a nice copy, especially for a book usually found beaten and abused. This was originally published in Thames & Hudson's Art & Imagination series but never in hardcover, thus this is the first and only hardcover edition. It is a glued binding, but then so were the paperback editions. The book is OP in all forms now, as is his Golden Game! $35.00

- 7142 Knight, Gareth. DION FORTUNE AND THE THREE FOLD WAY. London: S. I. L. Trading 2002, paperback, 160pp, like new. A collection of articles that originally appeared in the Inner Light Journal. $22.00
- 10944 Kondratov, Alexander. THE RIDDLES OF THREE OCEANS. Moscow: Progress Publishers, 1974, small 8vo, cloth & dj, 267pp, a few plates, vg-f. A scarce and undervalued work by this mathematician and student of Sanskrit. It is one of the most interesting books on Atlantis I ever read, the author has many original and unusual ideas based on sound scientific research. $24.00
- 8411 Krishnamurti, Jiddu. THE SEARCH. NY: Boni & Liveright 1927, gilt decorated cloth, 38pp, in rare dust jacket which sports a portrait of JK by Kahlil Gibran. The jacket is a little stained with a one inch chip gone from the front but not affecting the drawing and still with the price of $1.25. $40.00
- 11091 Kristeller, Paul Oskar. STUDIES IN RENAISSANCE THOUGHT AND LETTERS. Roma: Edizioni Di Storia E. Letteratura, 1956, 1985, 1993, three volumes, large 8vo, recent binder's cloth, wraps mounted on front covers, 680+643+697pp plus corrigenda, marginal browning in volume one, a fine set, with the booklabel of Bernard M. Rosenthal. Volume four was published in 1996 and is still in print. $480.00
- 11189 Kurath, Gertrude Prokosch & Samuel Marti. DANCES OF ANAHUAC. The Choreography and Music of Precortesian Dances. NY: Viking Fund 1964, tall 8vo, sewn wraps, 251pp, nicely illustrated in B & W, cover a bit bent, spine with brown water stain. $30.00

- 8072 McIntosh, Christopher. THE ROSICRUCIANS. The History, Mythology, and Rituals of an Esoteric Order. Weiser 1997, cloth in dust jacket, 162pp, illustrated, vg, op. McIntosh is the leading authority on European Rosicrucianism. He has written two related books previous to this. One, The Rose Cross and the Age of Reason, an academic book focusing on the roots, mainly German, of the 17th century Rosicrucian enlightenment, and another, now out of print titled The Rosicrucians. It was a brief overview of the entire phenomenon. This work here is a new edition of the latter with a more concentrated mix of the rigorous scholarly penetration of the former title. London: Nichols 1910, small 8vo, attractive green gilt illustrated cloth (taking as a design element the frontispiece of John Aubrey's Miscellanies), 98pp plus one page of ads, front ep and half-title torn-out otherwise a very good copy of this handsome little book. This book has an interesting mercantile pedigree. It was bought in London about 40 years ago by the great occult book seller Irwin Belsky, who sold it to another great occult book seller the late Richard Hackney, who sold it to the book scout and Sanskrit student Stephen Victor. I bought it from Stephen when he moved back to NY and kept it in my own library till now. It is one of my favorite books on the subject. $95.00

- 11125 Pancirolli, Guido. RERUM MEMORABILIMUM LIBRI DUO, QUORUM PRIOR DEPERDITARUM: POSTERIOR NOVITER INVENTARUM EST. Ex Italico Latinè redditi, & notis illustrati ab Henrico Salmuth. Editio secunda. Hamburg: Michael Forster 1607. Squat small octavo in seventeenth-century vellum-backed boards, rubbed and scuffed, backstrip torn in two places along joints but binding solid, recent lettering in india ink of title over the faded original lettering. Text (pp.798) complete (π 8, A-Ccc8, including final blank), slight worming of first and last signatures, touching a letter here and there but never obscuring the sense, paper lightly browned, a few slight original flaws in paper or type impression, glue stain on front pastedown where bookplate has been removed. Guido Pancirolli's (1523-99) Raccolta breve d'alcune cose piu segnalate c'hebbero gli antichi ... was first published in the form of a copiously annotated Latin translation of the original Italian manuscript (Hamburg 1599-1602) by Pancirolli's fellow lawyer Heinrich Salmuth of Hamburg. A second edition of Salmuth's version appeared, also in Hamburg, in 1607-8, with a third following in 1612. A French translation was published in Lyon in 1608. The original Italian text was not published until 1612, in Venice. The first English translation, The History of many memorable things ... appeared in London, as late as 1715. Offered here is the second edition of the first part only, containing 65 chapters on "the lost marvels of the ancients". The second part, Nova reperta, sive rerum memorabilium liber secundus (1608), with 25 chapters (in 780 pages) on such modern discoveries as the New World, Greek fire, sugar and clocks, is not present. $375.00

443 Randolph, Pashal Beverly. RAVALETTE, THE ROSICRUCIAN'S STORY. Philosophical Publishing Company 1939, cloth, color plates on coated stock, heraldic emblems, this is the deluxe edition, in beautiful gilt cloth, top gilt, nice, a very fine copy, still in the publ's plain wrapper. Copies of this have become very scarce in recent years as interest in Randolph climbed after the biography of Deveney. Randolph (1825-1875) is an unbelievably interesting man, no work of fiction would be believable if it told his story. Born with the blood of a Madagascan queen in him, he was a sailor and barber who traveled all over the world researching the true origins of mankind. He married an Indian woman, studied spiritualism and magnetism (which he later partly recanted), practiced medicine without a license, was crowned 'supreme hierarchy' of the Rosicrucians, wrote and published many curious books, championed hashish (which he discovered in Paris), and the rights of women, who it seems had a particular attraction to Randolph. But for all this he committed suicide in 1875. His first son died of neglect and poverty, but a second son, Osiris Budh Randolph became a successful doctor. ("There is little doubt that this tormented man was a great lover, an unreliable husband, and a wretched father" -Joscelyn Godwin). Randolph is now best known for his sexual philosophy, that is his sex magic. He believed he had discovered the secret to sexual fluids and lectured publicly on this topic, for which he was arrested but later acquitted. But because of his death, his ethnicity and his sex magic, he has been nearly forgotten by the moderns, and the new agers, who in their supreme ignorance of all things deep, don't even know of him. Randolph was and is one of the most important of all 19th century occultists, his books were widely read and had influence on such groups as the HB of L, and on the likes of Hargraves Jennings and Blavatsky. The volume we offer here is his fictional account of travels in Europe, lecturing before Emperor Napoleon III, being initiated, and his early spiritual experiences among other things. See the chapter devoted to Randolph in Godwin's The Theosophical Enlightenment for a vivid portrait. $145.00
